Facial massage Kobido 50 min. € 120

Facial cleansing, exfoliation and traditional Japanese anti-wrinkle facial massage that combines techniques of facial massage, lymphatic drainage, acupressure and Shiatsu; all treated from the medical tradition and the oriental thought, and the results are visible from the first session. We will see our skin bright, luminous, fresh and firmer in a serene and radiant face.

Prevents and reduces the aging process, improves the oxygenation and nutrition of the skin cells, releases energy and blocked tension in the facial and neck muscles, improves the lymphatic flow, strengthens and tones the muscles, stimulates the production of Collagen and elastin and balances the flow of energy from the face. It does not only treat the upper layer of epidermis, as western massages do, but this therapeutic technique stimulates the facial nerves benefiting and increasing blood circulation, distributing nutrients and eliminating toxins and impurities.
